JANE TAYLOR-HAYHURST

THE LITTLE GEM

Vintage coin necklace, £110, Kenneth Jay Lane (yoox.com).

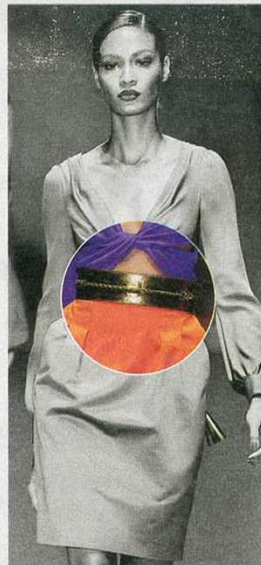

THE TROPHY

The coolest sandal for spring, £565, YSL (net-a-porter.com).

THE STEAL

Pay homage to Elizabeth Taylor with this turban, £9.99, River Island (riverisland.com).

THE DETAIL

Wide belts

The hottest accessory on the Gucci catwalk was easily the gold leather obi belt (above), which worked the Studio 54 vibe. Wide belts are a must this spring – wear them brightly coloured, as seen at Burberry Prorsum and Fendi, or stick to Lanvin's classic leather. On the high street, bargains can be found at A|Wear (from £6; awear.com) and Topshop (around £30; topshop.com).

Pssst...

New denim label Mother has just arrived on these shores from the other side of the Pond, with its amazing jeans that feel more like cashmere than denim. They've also nailed this season's hottest shape, the flare – check out the ultra-Seventies Drama style (above). From £200; donnaida.com and net-a-porter.com.

Wildfox Couture, a favourite label with the likes of Beyoncé, Katy Perry and Halle Berry, is launching its new line for girls aged 4-14 this week. Inspirations range from Native American artwork to vintage rock'n'roll T-shirts – you'll find no frills here, but plenty of pink. From £45; wildfoxcouture.com.

Miu Miu's new online store has just opened, offering a full range of ready-to-wear clothing, footwear, bags and accessories. There's even a fashion show section, where shoppers can browse key looks from the Paris runway (miumiu.com).
