

SPOT ON

Cult Stockholm label ACNE is becoming a collective obsession – we'll always love their jeans, but the chic cocktail dresses are our new must-haves. If, like us, you're addicted, then here's a sneak preview for next season. Check out the prints by artist KATERINA JEBB, her best friend Kylie was at the s/s 2010 show. In store mid-January.

MAISON MOST WANTED

Remember the wig jacket? The disco-ball top? Tabi boots? Lest we forget the creative fancies of MARTIN MARGIELA now he's officially left his own label, YOOX.COM has curated a virtual museum to the avant garde designer. A section on the site will be devoted to around 100 one-off pieces, spanning collections from 2005 to 2009. Prices from £141.

FANTASY HIGH STREET

Abdul Koroma and Andrew Jones of Modernist pick their fantasy high street.

- 1. 10 CORSO COMO (10 Corso Como, Milan). Amazing womenswear, plus a bookstore and courtyard cafe.
- 2. COS (222 Regent Street, London W1). Good colours, shapes and prices.

Good colours, shapes and prices.

- 3. OAK (28 Bond Street, New York). Cool men's and women's labels.
- 4. THE FUTURE PERFECT (115 North 6th Street, New York). It sells everything from furniture and wallpaper to jewellery.

5. LONDON TRIMMINGS (26-28 Cambridge Heath Road, London E1). An amazing haberdashery business.

6. STORY (4 Wilkes Street, London E1). A personal selection of rare vintage pieces.

7. LE COMPTOIR DE L'IMAGE (44 rue de Sévigné, Paris). We love this bookshop.

8. ACNE (10 Greene Street, New York). It's hard not to do serious credit-card damage.
