Directors remain in office for a period of no more than three years, expiring on the date of the Shareholders' Meeting called to approve the financial statements for the last year of their tenure. Directors may be re-elected.

Before making the appointments, the Shareholders' Meeting determines the number of directors and the term of office of the Board.

All Directors must meet the requirements of eligibility, professionalism and integrity provided for by law and by other applicable provisions.

Pursuant to Art. 147-ter, paragraph 4, of Legislative Decree 58/1988, at least one Director, or at least two if the Board has more than seven members, must also meet the requirements of independence set out therein (hereinafter "Independent Director pursuant to Art. 147-ter").

2. The Board of Directors is appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting on the basis of slates submitted by the Shareholders, according to the procedure set out in the following paragraphs, unless otherwise specified in mandatory laws or regulations.

Shareholders may submit a slate for the appointment of the Directors if, at the time of submission, they hold a shareholding at least equal to that determined by Consob pursuant to Article 147-ter, paragraph 1, of Legislative Decree 58/1988 as subsequently amended and supplemented, and in compliance with the Regulations for Issuers approved by resolution no. 11971 of May 14, 1999, as subsequently amended and supplemented,

Slates must be deposited at the registered office at least fifteen days before the Shareholders' Meeting called to resolve, at first call, on the appointment of the Directors. The Company must also make the slates available to the public without delay and in any case at least 10 (ten) days before the Shareholders' Meeting, according to the procedures set out by current rules and regulations.

The slates nominate no more than fifteen candidates, numbered progressively. Each slate must contain and expressly indicate an Independent Director pursuant to Art. 147-ter, with a progressive number no higher than seven. If the slate comprises more than seven candidates, it must contain and expressly indicate a second Independent Director pursuant to Art. 147-ter. Each slate may also expressly indicate, where applicable, the Directors that meet the requirements of independence set out in the codes of conduct drawn up by companies managing regulated markets or by trade associations.

Furthermore, the slates contain, also in annexes:

- (i) curriculum vitae detailing the candidates' personal and professional characteristics;
- (ii) the statements in which each of the candidates accepts their candidacy and certifies that there are no reasons of ineligibility or incompatibility and that they meet the requirements prescribed by current laws for the office of Company director. These statements may also include a declaration concerning whether they meet the requirements to qualify as an "Independent Director pursuant to Art. 147-ter", and, where applicable, the further requirements set out in the codes of conduct drawn up by companies managing regulated markets or by trade associations;

(iii) indication of the identity of the shareholders who have submitted slates and the total percentage shareholding held, supported by appropriate evidence issued by intermediaries;

(iv) any further or other declaration, information and/or document provided for by law and by applicable regulations.

Each shareholder and each group of shareholders belonging to a shareholders' agreement as defined in Article 122 of Legislative Decree no. 58/1998 may not submit nor vote for more than one slate, either directly, through a third party or through a fiduciary company. A candidate may be present on one slate alone, failing which he shall be deemed ineligible.

At the end of the vote, the candidates from the two slates with the most votes shall be elected, according to the following criteria: (i) from the slate that obtained the largest number of votes (hereinafter the "Majority Slate"), according to the progressive order in which they are submitted, there is taken a number of directors equal to the total number of board members, as previously established by the Shareholders' Meeting, minus one, and these candidates are elected in the numerical order indicated on the slate; (ii) from the slate that obtained the second highest number of votes and that is not linked, even indirectly, to the shareholders that submitted or voted for the Majority Slate pursuant to the applicable provisions (hereinafter the "Minority Slate"), there is taken one director, who is the candidate at the top of that slate; however, if from the Majority Slate, not even one Independent Director pursuant to Art. 147-ter is elected for a board of not more than seven members, or if only one Independent Director pursuant to Art. 147-ter is elected for a board with more than seven members, the first Independent Director pursuant to Art. 147-ter indicated on the Minority Slate will be elected, rather than the candidate at the top of the Minority Slate.

Slates that do not obtain a percentage of votes at least equal to half of that required to submit a slate shall not be taken into consideration.

If two slates receive the same number of votes, preference shall be given to the slate submitted by shareholders with the greatest shareholding at the time the slates are submitted, or alternatively, that submitted by the greatest number of shareholders.

If only one slate is submitted, the Shareholders vote on it and if it obtains a relative majority of the votes, excluding abstentions, the candidates listed in progressive order shall be elected as directors, up to the number determined by the Shareholders' Meeting. However, it is understood that, if the board comprises more than seven members, the second Independent Director pursuant to Art. 147-ter must be elected, in addition to the Independent Director necessarily included in the first seven places.

If no slates are submitted, or if the number of directors elected on the basis of the slates submitted is lower than that determined by the Shareholders' Meeting, the members of the Board of Directors are appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting through simple majority voting, without prejudice to the duty of the Shareholders' Meeting to appoint the minimum number of Independent Directors pursuant to Art.147-ter required by law.

The Independent Directors pursuant to Art. 147-ter, indicated as such at the time of their appointment, must immediately inform the Board of Directors if they cease to fulfil the independence requirements. The Director shall lose his post if the Board no longer has the minimum number of directors meeting the aforementioned independence requirements set by current laws.

3. If, for any reason, one or more Directors cease to hold their post, they will be replaced in accordance with Article 2386 of the Civil Code, without prejudice to the obligation to maintain the minimum number of Independent Directors pursuant to Art. 147-ter prescribed by law, and in compliance, where possible, with the principle of minority representation.

The candidate elected as Chairman of the Board of Directors is the candidate indicated as such on the Majority Slate or on the only slate submitted and approved. Otherwise, the Chairman is appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting through simple majority voting, or is appointed by the Management Body in accordance with these bylaws.

If the majority of Directors appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting resign or leave the board for any reason, the entire Board of Directors shall be considered replaced from the date on which the new board takes office. In this case, the Directors who have remained in office must urgently convene a Shareholders' Meeting to appoint the new Board of Directors.

Art. 15

1. The Board of Directors shall – where the Shareholders' Meeting has not already done so – elect the Chairman from among its members. It may also elect one or more Deputy Chairmen, who will remain in their respective posts for the duration of their directorship, which expires on the date of the Shareholders' Meeting called to approve the financial statements for the last year of their tenure. It shall also appoint a Secretary, who may be chosen from within or outside the Board.

Art. 16

1. The Chairman or, where is he is absent or unavailable, the Chief Executive Officer, calls a meeting of the Board of Directors by sending a letter, by post, fax or another appropriate means of communication, to the home address of each Director and Statutory Auditor.

In the event of an emergency, the Board of Directors can be convened by telegram, fax, electronic mail or another electronic means with confirmation of receipt at least 24 hours before the date of the meeting.

3. The Chairman coordinates the work of the Board of Directors and ensures that adequate information is provided to all Directors about the subjects included on the agenda.

4. The Board of Directors is convened to meet at the registered office or elsewhere in Italy, whenever the Chairman or, where he is absent or unavailable, the Chief Executive Officer deems this necessary, or if such a meeting is requested in writing by at least one third of the directors or by the Board of Statutory Auditors or individually by each member of the latter according to the applicable statutory provisions.

5. Participants may attend a meeting of the Board of Directors remotely through the use of audiovisual connection systems (video conference or conference call). In that case, all participants must be identifiable and each participant must be guaranteed the opportunity to speak and to express their opinion in real time and to receive, send and view documentation not seen previously. In addition, the simultaneous nature of examinations, speeches and discussions must be ensured. Directors and Auditors connected remotely must have access to the same documentation distributed to those present at the location where the meeting is held. The meeting of the Board of Directors is considered to be held at the place where the Chairman and the Secretary are present and the latter must operate jointly here.

6. Meetings shall be valid even if not convened as above as long as all Directors and members of the Board of Statutory Auditors in office are present.

7. Board of Directors' meetings are chaired by the Chairman or, if he is absent or unavailable, by the single Deputy Chairman, or, if there is more than one Deputy Chairman, by the longest serving among those present, or if they have been in office the same amount of time, by the oldest among them.

If the Chairman, the single Deputy Chairman or all the Deputy Chairmen are absent or unavailable, the meeting shall be chaired by the Chief Executive Officer or, if he is absent or unavailable, by the most senior director present according to the criteria mentioned above.

If the Secretary is absent or unavailable, the Board appoints his replacement.

Art. 17

1. In order for resolutions of the Board of Directors to be valid, the majority of the members in office must be present.

2. Resolutions are taken by a majority vote, with abstentions excluded.

In the event of a tie, the person chairing the meeting shall have the casting vote.

3. Voting must take place by means of an open ballot.

Art. 18

1. Resolutions of the Board of Directors must be recorded in minutes transcribed in a minute book and signed by the Chairman of the meeting and by the Secretary.

Art. 19

1. The Board of Directors is invested with all powers to manage the Company, and to this end, may pass resolutions or carry out measures that it deems necessary or useful to achieve the Company's objects, with the exception of matters reserved for the Shareholders' Meeting by law or according to the bylaws.

The Board of Directors is also responsible, in accordance with Art. 2436 of the Civil Code, for adopting resolutions concerning:

- “simplified” mergers or demergers pursuant to Arts. 2505, 2505-bis, 2506-ter, last paragraph of the Civil Code;
- the establishment or closure of secondary offices;

- the reduction of the share capital following withdrawal;

- amendments to the Bylaws to comply with laws and regulations, it being understood that these resolutions may also be adopted by an Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting.

The Board of Directors must ensure that the Chief Financial Officer has adequate resources and powers to carry out the duties entrusted to him by law and ensure compliance with administrative and accounting procedures.

2. The Board of Directors may - within the limits prescribed by law and according to the Bylaws - delegate its powers and authorities to the Executive Committee. It may also appoint one or more Chief Executive Officers to whom to delegate the above powers and authorities within the same limits.

In addition, the Board of Directors may also set up one or more committees with a consulting, advisory or supervisory role, in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations.

The Board of Directors has the power to appoint one or more General Managers.

3. Delegated bodies must report to the Board of Directors and to the Board of Statutory Auditors at least once every quarter, in the course of board meetings, on the work carried out, on the general business performance and its foreseeable outlook, as well as on operations of major importance in terms of their size and characteristics carried out by the Company and its subsidiaries.

Directors report to the Board of Statutory Auditors on the activities carried out and on the most significant financial operations carried out by the Company and its subsidiaries. Specifically, they report on operations in which Directors have a personal or external interest or which are influenced by the entity responsible for management and coordination. These activities are usually reported in the course of board meetings and at least every quarter. Where particular circumstances make it appropriate to do so, they may also be reported in writing to the Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors.

4. After consulting with the Board of Statutory Auditors, the Board of Directors appoints the Chief Financial Officer, within the meaning of Art. 154-bis of Legislative Decree 58/98, and gives him sufficient resources and powers to perform the duties assigned to him.

The Chief Financial Officer must meet professional requirements of at least three years' experience in the performance of management and supervisory duties, or in the performance of managerial or consulting duties in a listed company and/or related groups of companies or in large-sized companies, organisations and undertakings, including with regard to the preparation and monitoring of corporate accounting documents. The Chief Financial Officer must also meet the requirements of integrity prescribed for auditors by current laws. The loss of these requirements shall result in dismissal from the position, which must be announced by the Board of Directors within thirty days of it becoming aware of that circumstance.

In the appointment process, the Board will establish that the aforementioned Officer meets the requirements laid down herein and by current legislation.

Art. 20

1. Directors are entitled to the reimbursement of any expenses incurred in carrying out their duties. The Shareholders' Meeting resolves on the annual remuneration of the Board of Directors, which shall remain unchanged until otherwise resolved by the Shareholders' Meeting and which may also consist of a fixed part and a variable part, the latter conditional upon achieving certain targets. The manner in which the emoluments payable to the Board of Directors are distributed shall, where the Shareholders' Meeting has not done so, be determined by a resolution of the Board itself.

2. This does not affect the right of the Board of Directors, having consulted with the Board of Statutory Auditors, to determine, in addition to the total amount decided by the Shareholders' Meeting according to the previous paragraph, the remuneration payable to Directors invested with specific duties, within the meaning of Article 2389, third paragraph, of the Civil Code.

3. Alternatively, the Shareholders' Meeting may determine a total amount payable with respect to the remuneration of all Directors, including those invested with specific duties. This amount is then allocated by the Board of Directors, having consulted with the Board of Statutory Auditors, to the Directors invested with specific duties, within the meaning of Article 2389, third paragraph, of the Civil Code.

Executive Committee

Art. 21

1. The Board of Directors may appoint an Executive Committee and determine its duration and the number of members. The number of members of the Committee includes, as ex officio members, the Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer or Officers if more than one, where appointed.
2. The Secretary of the Committee is the same as that of the Board of Directors, unless otherwise resolved by the Board.

temporarily, with the Deputy Chairman or with each of the Deputy Chairmen if more than one, with the priority determined under Art. 16 paragraph 7. Responsibility also lies with the Chief Executive Officer or Officers, if appointed, within the limits of the powers delegated.

2. In dealings with third parties, the deputy's signature is proof of the absence or unavailability of the person being replaced.

3. The Board may also, where necessary, appoint agents from within or outside the Company to carry out specific deeds.

Board of Statutory Auditors

Art. 26

The Board of Statutory Auditors comprises three Statutory Auditors and two Alternate Auditors.

Auditors remain in office for three years, expiring on the date of the Shareholders' Meeting called to approve the financial statements for the last year of their tenure. Auditors may be re-elected. Their remuneration is determined by the Shareholders' Meeting at the time of appointment for the entire duration of their tenure.

Auditors must meet the requirements established by law and other applicable provisions. As regards professionalism requirements, the business sectors strictly linked to those of the Company are those of commerce, fashion and IT, as well as private and administrative law, economics and company auditing and organisation. Members of the Board of Statutory Auditors are subject to the limits on the number of management and supervisory positions held concurrently as established by Consob regulations.

The Board of Statutory Auditors is appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting on the basis of slates submitted by the Shareholders, according to the procedures set out in the following paragraphs, unless otherwise specified in mandatory laws or regulations.

Minority shareholders – who have no material direct or indirect connection within the meaning of Article 148, paragraph 2, of Legislative Decree 58/1998, and related regulations – may appoint one Statutory Auditor, who will act as Chairman of the Board and one Alternate Auditor. Minority Auditors are elected at the same time as other members of the supervisory bodies, except when they are replaced, a situation governed by the procedures set out below.

Shareholders may submit a slate for the appointment of the Board of Statutory Auditors if, at the time of submission, they hold a shareholding, individually or together with other submitting shareholders, at least equal to that determined by Consob pursuant to Article 147-ter, paragraph 1, of Legislative Decree 58/1988 and in compliance with the Regulations for Issuers approved by resolution no. 11971 of May 14, 1999, as subsequently amended and supplemented.

Slates must be deposited at the registered office at least fifteen days before the Shareholders' Meeting called to resolve, at first call, on the appointment of the Auditors. The Company must also make the slates available to the public without delay and in any case at least 10 (ten) days before the Shareholders' Meeting, according to the procedures set out by current rules and regulations.

Slates must indicate the names of one or more candidates for the position of Statutory Auditor and one or more candidates for the position of Alternate Auditor. The candidates' names are ordered progressively in each section (Statutory Auditor section, Alternate Auditor section), and their number must not be greater than the number of auditors to be elected.

Furthermore, the slates contain, also in annexes:

- (i) information on the identity of the shareholders who have submitted the slates and the total percentage shareholding held, and certification proving ownership of this shareholding;
- (ii) declaration by shareholders other than those who hold, individually or jointly, a relative majority shareholding, certifying the absence of connections within the meaning of Art. 144-quinquies of the Regulations for Issuers with the latter;
- (iii) detailed information on the personal and professional characteristics of the candidates, as well as a declaration from these candidates certifying that they meet the requirements established by law and accept the candidacy, along with a list of management and supervisory positions that they have held in other companies;
- (iv) any other declaration, information and/or document provided for by law and by the applicable regulations.

Slates submitted that do not comply with the above provisions are considered ineligible.

If by the deadline for the submission of slates, only one slate has been submitted or there are only slates submitted by shareholders acting in concert within the meaning of the applicable provisions, further slates may be deposited up to the fifth day after this deadline. In this event, the abovementioned thresholds required to submit a slate are halved.

A shareholder may not present nor vote for more than one slate, either directly, through a third party or a fiduciary company. Shareholders belonging to the same group and shareholders belonging to a shareholders' agreement relating to the Issuer's shares may not submit nor vote for more than one slate, either directly, through a third party or a fiduciary company. Memberships and votes cast in breach of this prohibition shall not be attributed to any slate. A candidate may be present on one slate alone, failing which he shall be deemed ineligible.

Statutory Auditors are elected as follows: (i) from the slate that obtained the largest number of votes ("Majority Slate"), there are taken, according to the progressive order in which they are listed on the slate, two Statutory Auditors and one Alternate Auditor; (ii) from the slate that obtained the second highest number of votes and that is not linked, even indirectly, to the shareholders that submitted or voted for the Majority Slate pursuant to the applicable provisions ("Minority Slate"), there are taken, according to the progressive order in which they are listed on the slate, one Statutory Auditor, who will chair the Board of Statutory Auditors ("Minority Auditor") and one Alternate Auditor ("Minority Alternate Auditor"). If two slates receive the same number of votes, preference shall be given to the slate submitted by shareholders with the greatest shareholding at the time the slates are submitted, or alternatively, that submitted by the greatest number of shareholders.

If only one slate is submitted, the Shareholders' Meeting shall vote on it, and if it obtains the relative majority of votes, without taking abstentions into account, all the candidates for the positions of Statutory and Alternate Auditor on that slate shall be elected. In this case, the Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors shall be the first Statutory Auditor candidate.

If no slates are submitted, the Board of Statutory Auditors and the Chairman are appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting by simple majority voting prescribed by law.

If the Majority Auditor leaves his position for whatever reason, he shall be replaced by the Alternate Auditor taken from the Majority Slate.

If the Minority Auditor leaves his position for whatever reason, he shall be replaced by the Minority Alternate Auditor.

Pursuant to Article 2401, first paragraph, of the Civil Code, the Shareholders' Meeting appoints and replaces auditors according to the principle of mandatory minority shareholder representation.

Art. 27

1. The Board of Statutory Auditors carries out the duties entrusted to it by law and by other applicable regulations. During the entire period in which the Company's shares are admitted for trading on an Italian regulated market, the Board of Statutory Auditors also exercises any other duty and power prescribed by special laws. With particular regard to reporting to the Board of Statutory Auditors, the directors must report to that board every quarter, pursuant to Article 150 of Legislative Decree no. 58 of February 24, 1998, and in accordance with the procedures set out in Article 19, paragraph 3, hereof.

2. Meetings of the Board of Statutory Auditors may also be held through the use of teleconferencing and/or videoconferencing systems, provided that:

- a) the Chairman and the person taking the minutes are present in the place in which it is convened;
- b) all participants can be identified and can follow the discussion, can receive, send and view documents and can contribute to the discussion of all agenda items in real time. Having verified these requirements, the Board of Statutory Auditors' meeting is deemed to take place in the place where the Chairman and the person taking the minutes are situated.

3. Accounting control is carried out, in accordance with the application laws, by a qualified audit company.

Art. 28

1. The financial year ends on December 31 of each year.

1. The net profit shown in the financial statements, minus the portion to be allocated to the legal reserve up to the limit prescribed by law, is allocated according to the resolutions taken by the Shareholders' Meeting. Specifically, on the proposal of the Board of Directors, the Shareholders' Meeting may vote on the formation and increase of other reserves. The board may decide to distribute interim dividends according to the procedures and forms prescribed by law.

The Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting may vote on the allocation of earnings or reserves made up of earnings to employees of the Company or its subsidiaries through the issue, up to an amount equivalent to such earnings, of ordinary shares without any restriction or special categories of shares to be assigned individually to employees, pursuant to Art. 2349 of the Civil Code.
